Buddhist Canonical Disciplinary Transaction Statements

The transaction statements the Canon gives for these disciplinary transactions follow closely the details of the origin stories leading up to the first allowance for each transaction. As the Commentary points out, these statements do not fit all the cases where a particular disciplinary transaction can be applied. Thus, it recommends — when imposing one of these transactions on an individual — adjusting the statement to fit the facts of the case, drawing on the list of allowable applications for the transaction as given in the Canon.

A. Censure

Transaction statement: (Cv.l.1.4)

Noble sirs, may the Community listen to me. This Ngagpa Osel Tendzin is a maker of strife, quarrels, disputes, dissension, issues in the Community. If the Community is ready, it should impose a censure transaction on Ngagpa Osel Tendzin. This is the motion.

Noble sirs, may the Community listen to me. This Ngagpa Osel Tendzin is a maker of strife, quarrels, disputes, dissension, issues in the Community. The Community is imposing a censure transaction on Ngagpa Osel Tendzin. He to whom the imposition of a censure transaction on Ngagpa Osel Tendzin is agreeable should remain silent. He to whom it is not agreeable should speak.

A second time... A third time I speak about this matter. Noble sirs, may the Community listen to me... He to whom it is not agreeable should speak.

The Community has imposed a censure transaction on Ngagpa Osel Tendzin. This is agreeable to the Community, therefore it is silent. Thus do I hold it.

Alternative reasons for imposing censure:
He is inexperienced and incompetent, full of offenses, and has not undergone the penalty for them:

He lives in the company of householders, in unbecoming association with householders:

With regard to heightened virtue, his virtue is corrupted:

With regard to heightened behavior, his behavior is corrupted:

With regard to higher views, his views are corrupted:

He speaks in dispraise of the Buddha:

He speaks in dispraise of the Dhamma:

He speaks in dispraise of the Sangha:

B. Further Punishment

Transaction statement: (Cv.IV.11.2)

Noble sirs, may the Community listen to me. This Ngagpa Osel Tendzin, having been accused of an offense, admits it after denying it, denies it after admitting it, evades the issue, tells a conscious lie. If the Community is ready, it should impose a transaction of further punishment on Ngagpa Osel Tendzin. This is the motion.

A second time... A third time I speak about this matter. Noble sirs, may the Community listen to me... He to whom it is not agreeable should speak.

The Community has imposed a transaction of further punishment on Ngagpa Osel Tendzin. This is agreeable to the Community, therefore it is silent. Thus do I hold it.

The above transaction statement follows the example given at Cv.IV.11.2. The basic prerequisite for this transaction, given at Cv.IV.12.1, is that the Ngagpa in question be impure, shameless, and has been accused of having committed an offense (§). In the transaction statement, this would be stated as follows:

He is impure, shameless, and accused of having committed an offense:

However, Cv.IV.12.3 maintains that under this general requirement, all the variations listed under censure would qualify a Ngagpa for this transaction as well. For some reason, BD omits the variations from, "in terms of heightened virtue, his virtue is corrupted," to, "he speaks in dispraise of the Sangha."

C. Demotion
Transaction statement: (Cv.I.9.2)

Noble sirs, may the Community listen to me. This Ngagpa Osel Tendzin is a maker of strife, quarrels, disputes, dissension, issues in the Community. If the Community is ready, it should impose a demotion transaction on Ngagpa Osel Tendzin, [saying,] "You are to live in dependence." This is the motion.

demotion transaction on Ngagpa Osel Tendzin, [saying,] "You are to live in dependence." He to whom the imposition of a demotion transaction on Ngagpa Osel Tendzin, [saying,] "You are to live in dependence," is agreeable should remain silent. He to whom it is not agreeable should speak.

A second time... A third time I speak about this matter. Noble sirs, may the Community listen to me... He to whom it is not agreeable should speak.

The Community has imposed a demotion transaction on Ngagpa Osel Tendzin, [saying,] "You are to live in dependence." This is agreeable to the Community, therefore it is silent. Thus do I hold it.

D. Banishment
Transaction statement: (Cv.I.13.7)

Noble sirs, may the Community listen to me. This Ngagpa Osel Tendzin is endowed with bodily and verbal wrong livelihood. If the Community is ready, it should perform a transaction banishing Ngagpa Osel Tendzin from (place), [saying,] "Ngagpa Osel Tendzin is not to live in (place)." This is the motion.
